

ARTHUR MELLOWS VILLAGE COLLEGE

BRITISH VALUES

At Arthur Mellows Village College we promote values which ensure that our students develop a strong sense of social and moral responsibility.

We prepare students for the life in modern Britain because values such as individual liberty, democracy, the law, mutual respect, and tolerance are embedded with the curriculum and the ethos at Arthur Mellows.

In addition, these values are also promoted at various times throughout the year.

Our curriculum is broad and balanced, complies with legislation and provides a wide range of subjects which prepare students for the opportunities, responsibilities, and experiences of life in Modern Britain.

It actively promotes the fundamental British values, and it extends beyond the classroom with a wide range of visits and experiences.

It promotes tolerance and respect for people of all faiths (or none), cultures and lifestyles through effective spiritual, moral, social, and cultural development of students, including engaging students in extracurricular activity and volunteering in the local community.

It is supported by a well-rounded programme of assemblies which offer a clear guidance of what is right and wrong.
